Destination: The World

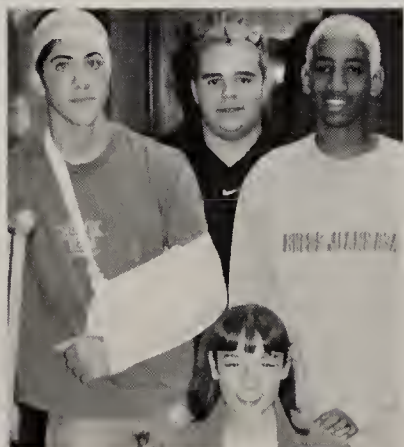

The Places We Will Go

You are now boarding a non-stop, direct flight straight through Pope John into the real world. Through 34 years of continual excellence, we haven't lost sight of our destination. Good education is just the beginning of what we have to offer. With a wide range of activities, athletics, and clubs, this is school as you've always imagined it to be! Surrounded by the lush natural beauty of Broadway, Cameron Street, and LaFayette Street, you'll think Pope John is an urban oasis. As the Class of 2001 departs, they take with them a landscape of memories to guide them on their future journeys.

Dear Graduates of the Class of 2001:

Congratulations! As principal of Pope John XXIII High School, I offer you my best wishes as you celebrate the achievement of graduation from high school. Your class, the Class of 2001, has the distinction of being the senior class when Pope John XXIII was beatified. As "Blessed" Pope John XXIII opened the doors to a new Church, may you find that your high school education will open doors to many new and wonderful opportunities for you in the future.

At this special time in your life, I commend you for many things. In particular I take pride in you for your presence in my life, your sense of service, and for the respect that each one of you has brought to our school community. As the Class of 2001 travels to other places, please know that your time at 888 Broadway has made a difference in my life, and in the lives of so many people.

Jubilee 2000: Beatification of Pope John XXIII

On September 3rd, 2000, tens of thousands of pilgrims from around the world gathered in St. Peter's Square for the beatification of Pope John XXIII.

In the shadow of St. Peter's Basilica.

"Five days was not nearly enough time to see everything, but we did our best. My favorite was seeing all the pilgrims from around the world. I am truly thankful that I had the opportunity to be part of Jubilee 2000!"

Caitlin Ryan

"In 1979 my mother attended mass on Boston Common with Pope John Paul II. Twenty-one years later, I went to Vatican City and was able to appreciate the Mass said in Latin like so many have heard before me."

I only look sweet and innocent.

Blessed Pope John XXIII

Born in 1881, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli led the life of a peasant in northern Italy. Ordained in 1904, he served the Church as a diplomat to Hungary, Greece, and France. Elected Supreme Pontiff by the College of Cardinals in 1958, Pope John XXIII shocked the Church and the world by calling the Second Vatican Council to address issues of the Church in the modern world. He was loved by all, and his legacy will continue to influence our lives well into the third millenium.

Academics

The Alps

Like climbing the Alps, Academic success at Pope John is an uphill battle. As we scale the mountains of knowledge, our teachers act as Ski Patrol, guiding us through blizzards of information. Even though we sometimes feel like taking the emergency sled to the bottom, we keep on trekking. As snow wafts in through the open windows and an icy wind blows through the halls, students often wish they could take a vacation to the Alps just to warm up, but we are willing to brave the cold for the opportunity to slake our thirst from the water fountain of wisdom.

Campus Ministry Activities

Retreats

"Coming together to celebrate diversity and differences in each other as well forming an unbreakable bond as friends."

Mass

"The best part about the Cardinal's Mass was singing together as a community, and that he gave us the day off."

Campus Ministry

"A group of single individuals forming a classroom devoted to the pursuit of happiness as well as the spread of the recognition of universal human dignity."

Canned Food Drive

"Lending a hand to enrich the lives of those less fortunate and experiencing the sheer pleasure of helping others out."

Blood Drive

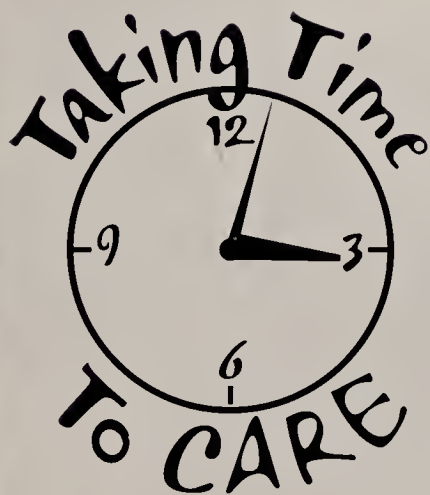

"Pulling together as a community and family to give a piece of our lives to help save our brothers and sisters."

I Will Choose Christ!

"I See,' Said the Blind Man"

Sophomore Anthony Seguisse participates in one of the many activities on peacemaking during his class retreat. During this skit, students had the opportunity to make decisions whether or not to help their "blind" classmate.

"It Doesn't Hurt at All"

During the annual blood drive, the Pope John community was able to help the Red Cross by donating 28 units of blood. This is the third year the drive has been run by the Campus Ministry class. Shown above, junior Jimmy Flynn was one of the many students to donate.

"Can I Wear Your Hat?"

Pope John was able to come together and celebrate during the Cardinal's Mass on February 1, 2001. Seen here with the alter servers, David Baressi, Stephanie Favreau, John Harrington, and Zayda Gonzales; the Cardinal enjoyed his time with the school.

Tutoring

Gregory takes a break while Erin keeps plugging away.

Here at Pope John the student body is concerned with tapping the potential of their peers. This is why a number of students volunteer with the PJ tutoring program. During their studies they offer their time and expertise in helping others understand concepts which are more easily comprehended in a one-on-one situation. Both students benefit from this exchange.

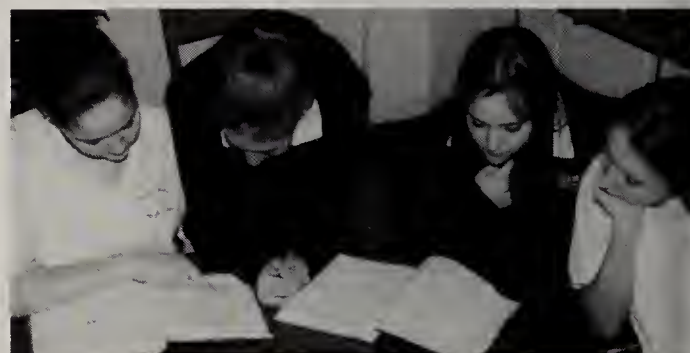

Christine Gontarz

John Winter

Mai Vo

The sophomores girls engage in a study session to help each other on the big test.

Blue Key

The students who volunteer their time to assist in the main office during their studies play an important role in helping the school to run smoothly. Known as Blue Key, students collect attendance and perform various office tasks. Without this assistance, many tasks would be left undone, leaving more work for Sisters Peggy and Lorraine.

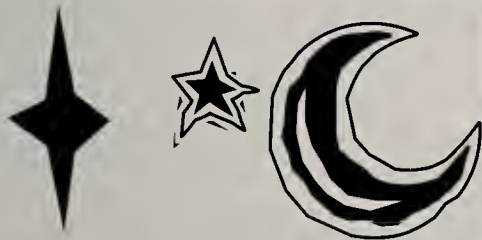

Jessica shows her secretarial skills by stuffing envelopes for Sister Peggy.

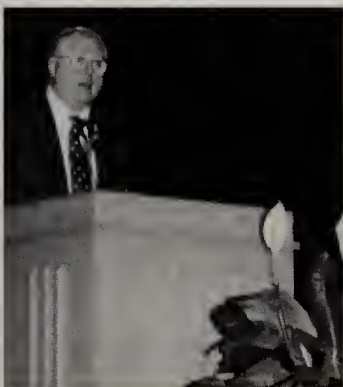

Rochleen and David take a break from labeling and stuffing to flip through the new alumni updates.

Winter Awards Ceremony

Friday, February 16, 2001 we took the opportunity to recognize and celebrate the many academic achievements of our students. Here are pictured only a fraction of the many winners.

Mr. Naglowsky, Master of Ceremonies, keeps things on pace and under control.

Cardinal Law congratulates Catholic Schools Week essay winners: Mary Ledbetter, Neil Sullivan, Jennie Jimenez, and Maria Read.

John Willis and Kristen Sibiga pose with Sister Kristin after winning January Student of the Month for their computer graphics work.

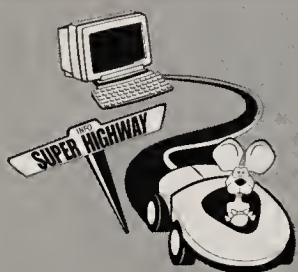

Waiting for their names to be called: senior Craig Lloyd checks his watch to see if it's time to start.

Freshman Robert Burge, like so many others, is recognized for his academic achievement during the first semester.

Our world today is ruled by media. Pope John has a Library Media Center in which students can access information from many sources: books, magazines, and computers. In addition to all these, a group of dedicated individuals writes, produces, and broadcasts a news program daily, updating students on events throughout the school.

Student Life

Caribbean

Throngs of students wander aimlessly through the halls of Pope John slow as the tides receding from the the rocky shore while our sunshine yellow walls are reminiscent of the sun-drenched skies of the Caribbean. The scenery isn't the only thing that Pope John has in common with an island paradise. The music that echos off the misty, jagged cliffs reminds us of the sultry tropical sounds of the screaming sophomores that fill our corridors.

A: Father Tom gives communion to senior Amanda Barresi.

B: Dayquil, Nyquil what's the difference?

C: Seniors lead the school, placing our petitions before the Father.

D: Father Tom lifts the chalice, offering our gifts to God.

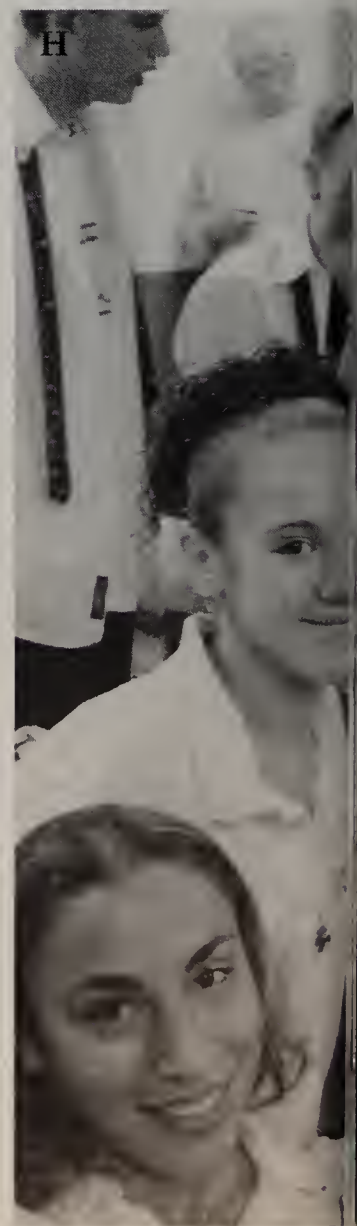

E: Jingle Bells is so much easier to sing.

F: Would you like fries with that?

G: Not by the hair of your chinney, chin, chin!

H: Oh, like you're not just here for the food.

I: Where's the food?

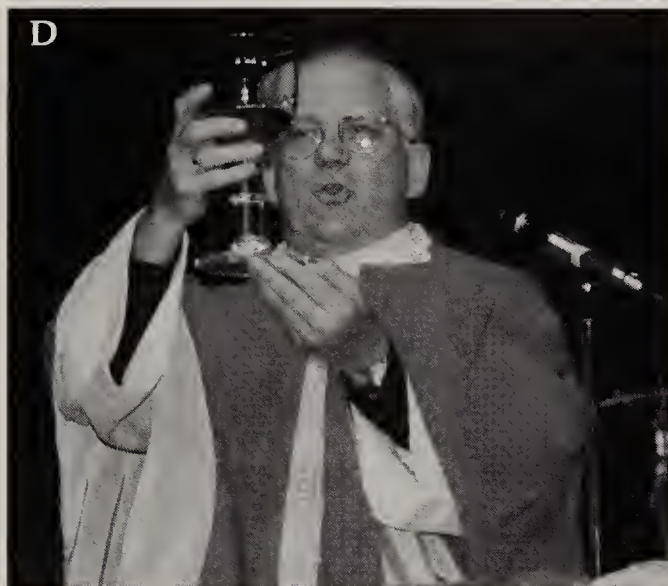

J: Oh jeez, where are my legs?

K: And which one is the freshman?

L: Table for two.

Getting to Know You!

On September 15, 2000, we held our traditional opening liturgy and second annual freshmen barbecue. Fr. Thomas Dunne, SDB, Director of the Archdiocesan Office for Youth Ministry was the main celebrant for the opening liturgy. The Pope John choir and band were introduced at this time. At the barbecue, the freshmen were paired with senior buddies who helped them become acquainted with the school. This was the first event of the school year where upperclassmen and underclassmen came together.

Pope John Siblings

Here are the Pope John siblings! They are the special ones with all the great deals for our fundraisers! Awww, what a big happy family! Aren't they cute!?

She's my sister, I love my sister
Kristen (senior), Allison (freshman), and Michelle (junior) all get to spend a whole year together at Pope John! Even though their personalities differ, they all share the same sisterly love for each other.

Freshman-Senior Siblings

Kelly & Lindsey Roan

Kelly will be missed by her sister next year, but what Lindsey won't miss are the games of redlight played on the bus to away basketball games.

Bridget & Danny Fitzpatrick

Bridget will be sad to see her brother leave this year, and she'll miss the support she gets from her big brother Danny.

Stephen & Nicole Giggie

Stephen has found that the benefit of having Nicole available for lunch money outweighs the inconvenience of waiting for her after school.

Cathy & Stephanie Calautti

All good things must come to an end, and this spring Stephanie will have to say "Bye Bye Bye" to her little sis Cathy.

'ARE WE THERE YET?? HE TOUCHED ME!!
 MOM! I HAVE TO GO TO THE BATHROOM!"
 Ah the joys of traveling with your siblings. Pack the crew into the minivan and shove off for a day of fun at the beach! You love your siblings, and so do we. Here at Pope John we are glad to accommodate the whole happy family of travelers eager to learn. Each year millions of siblings travel through Pope John, where the gold of the sun meets the rainbow hues of the building's facade.
 Who could imagine a better trip than one taken with your siblings...or maybe not.

Kid sister! Kid sisiter! Kid sister and me!!

Rosanna

Sophomore Rosanna Lavino likes fashionable clothes, listens to ska music, runs cross country, and has looooooved the two years she was able to spend here at Pope John with her brother.

Carmine

Unlike Rosanna, senior Carmine Lavino isn't too into fashion. He enjoys listening to popular music and, like his kid sister, he has enjoyed his time spent here at Pope John.

My brother! My brother! My brother and me!

Chris

Chris Cassesso is a loud, fun-loving freshman who is glad to have the company of his older brother Mike at Pope John. He also likes to listen to rap music and seems to always be the center of attention.

Mike

Junior Mike Cassesso is much quieter than his brother Chris. He likes listening to alternative music, and though he's not always in the spotlight like, he still loves knowing that with Chris in the school, someone will always have his back.

Dancin' the Night Away

Only in the after hours clubs of NYC would you find a more lively and energetic crowd than the one found at the Freshman/Sophomore Social in March 2000. Reggae beats filled the Caribbean night air as people got down with their bad selves.

A: All dressed up and no where to go...

B: Shake your groove thang!

C: Mo, Larry, and Curly.

E: A line up of the usual suspects.

F: How long do I have to smile like this?

G: Girls' night out.

H: Dance with me.

I: All that dancing wore me out.

J: Pretty women.

K: And they call it puppy love.

L: Oops...I did it again.

M: And let my spirit carry me.

Junior & Senior Snowball

Set upon the snowy white beach of Nahant, the Ocean View hall hosted Pope John's first ever joint Junior and Senior Snowball on December 14, 2000. Preparations for this monumental event were extensive and expensive:

A one of a kind dress: $75.00
Tickets for two: $70.00
Gas (super-premium): $20.00
A night with friends: Priceless.
There are some things money can't buy. For everything else, there's Mom's Mastercard.

A. We'll pose for you if you'll pose for us.

B. I thought I was going to wear the black dress.

C. Should've worn high heels

D. One, two, three..pull!

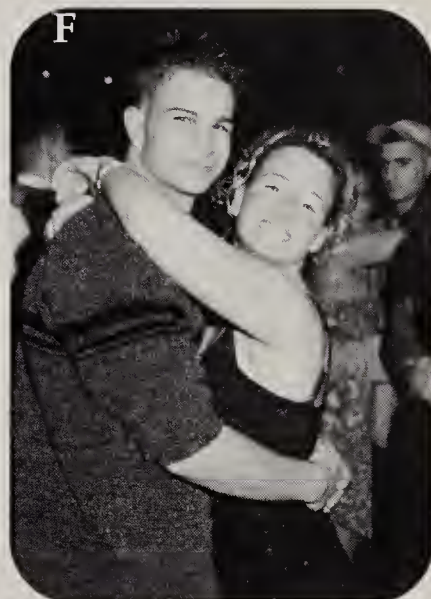

E

E. I think we caught the same thing they have.

F. Smile really big.

It's Gonna Be Me!

The Class of 2004 is just beginning their journey through Pope John. Many things are on their minds as they go through this difficult period. There are homerooms, lockers, and of course, boy bands to worry about. We took time out to find some student's opinions on the really important stuff... like Justin Timberlake.

Class of ... 2004

What's your opinion of boy bands and why?

"Well I love N*SYNC but I hate the Backstreet Boys! and most of the other boy bands. I feel this way because from the first time I saw N*SYNC I loved them. My friend Caryn Williamson and I went two concerts together and I will never feel the same for any other group."

those savvy seniors

The seniors have come a long way, since they first boarded flight PJ2001 departing from Gate 9 in September of 1997. They have traveled hither and thither, over hill and dale, all the while pursued by Sr. Nancy looking for their research projects. The Class of 2001 wouldn't trade the last four years for an all expense paid trip to New Orleans during Mardi Gras, or so they'll tell their grandchildren. The flight may be over but the journey has just begun. They have upgraded their tiny plastic co-pilot wings and assumed the pilot's seat of their own lives. A whole world of opportunity awaits them once they depart from these hallowed halls to infinity and beyond!

Jessica Hamill

We look back through our memories, we look back through the years, we see a lot of laughter, and recall so many tears. It's hard for us to let go for each of us has a separate dream as we turn down separate roads. As we leave to go on, we watch the time go by, but through it all we never say goodbye.

Kristy Hardy

I used to always think that I'd look back on us crying and laugh, but I never thought I'd look back on us laughing and cry.

True love is like ghosts, which everybody talks about and few have seen.

I believe in angels, the ones that heaven sends, I believe in angels, but I call them my best friends.

Senior Superlatives & Favorites

There is nothing so important as choosing the right traveling companion. One never knows when it might be helpful to be accompanied by a person noted for success, argument or talent. At times, while reclining on the beach under the sun you may be better served by someone who is funny, friendly or talkative. There are other considerations in addition to your choice of traveling companion, such as who stars in the inflight movie, whether your resort is near your favorite fast food joint, and what car to get you there. Our seniors have made their recommendations. On the following pages are found the most eligible traveling companions as well as the all the necessary luxuries to make your trip a memory to be cherished.

Although Pope John may not be Stadium Australia, we do have a shiny new gym floor. When the games are away, the players all pile into the bus where psychotic drivers and wrong turns are just a few of the joys of traveling. Though we are journeying through a seemingly never-ending "growing season," Pope John sports are renowned from Everett to Australia. No matter how far away our sports teams may travel, they are always drawn back to the shiny new floor.

Another great kickoff after the Tigers score.

The 2000 Pope John football season was a successful one. A strong backfield combined with a dominant offensive line as well as a tough defense with a great pass rush and coverage, the Tigers finished the season with a 4-6 record. The seniors showed great leadership, led by captains Joe Lento, Mike Sauchuk, Ken O'Connell, and Josh DeSimone. They have set the bar and expect great things from their future stars.

The volleyball team had a good season in their first year in the Catholic Central League. Led by captains Jessica Hamill and Joclyn Madden, they put up a good fight against powerhouse teams such as Bishop Fenwick and Arlington Catholic. Thanks to Coach Cara Lopez, the girls had a lot of fun this season and will greatly miss her next year, along with graduating Seniors Joclyn Madden, Jessica Hamill, Jessica Iovanna, and Kristen Sibega. Next season the team hopes to play even harder than ever, headed by such players as Kristen Erickson, who won the Coach's Award this year.

Although the team consisted only of five members, a lot of heart and dedication were demonstrated throughout the season. After entering a new, more competitive league, the girls had a motivating victory over Cathedral. We look forward to building on this season's accomplishments and adding to next season's win column.

This year the girls' varsity soccer team was moved into the Central Catholic League, where they faced very tough competition. Nonetheless, the girls were able to walk away from the season with four hard fought wins. Co-captains, Amanda Baressi and Erin Connors, led the team into the season with strong support from all-star players, Kara Feraco and Shannon Dowling. With the strong leadership roles that have formed throughout the season, the Tigers hope to create a well rounded team with so many young promising players that will compete well in the future.

This Pope John boys' soccer season was in a rebuilding phase. They had a young team, with no senior players, but that's also good news for them considering that many players will be returning for another season. With the infusion of new freshmen and the strong presence of this year's team, the Tigers will be a team to be reckoned with.

For Pope John Hockey, this year was a learning season. The move from division three to division two gave the players and coaches a greater challenge to fulfill. Even though their record was 5-12-0, they showed great improvement from last season. A great effort was shown from their first and second lines. Players Anthony Lombardi, John Gautreau, David Baressi, Danny Fitzpatrick, Billy Sharky, and Chris Troisi scored a majority of Pope John's goals. There were many good defensive efforts made by Jimmy Saino, Jason Landry, and Paul Marchese as well. This year was a learning experience and all involved hope for a winning one next year.

Clubs Paris

Whether it's seeing the Mona Lisa at the Louvre or taking in the spectacular sights from atop the Eiffel Tower, Paris is by far one of the most cultural cities in the world. Culture is also an important aspect of the Pope John community. Strolling along the front plaza and into the brightly tiled hallways of the school, students from different grades and backgrounds can come together to share common interests. From an exhilarating game of chess to a theatrical performance, there are many attractions that are sure to catch your eye.

Saturday, April 7, 2000. Nine students, escorted by two of Pope John's most seasoned world travelers, Ms. Goldberg and Mr. Raia, boarded a plane bound for Paris France. They would spend nine days visiting some of the most spectacular sights in all the world. Whether it was a late night trek to the Eiffel Tower or an early morning visit to Notre Dame Cathedral, they saw it all. In Provence, some of France's most beautiful countryside, the temperatures warmed and the shopping began in earnest. Be it Provencal table cloths or that fabulous purse you just couldn't live without, everyone found something to bring home. Easter morning Mass in the Cathedral of Nice concluded the sojourn on just the right note. April 2001--Spain!

Ms. Goldberg

"If they think I'm taking another cuchette, I will have to tell them: 'Do you know who I am? I'm Ms. Goldberg; I don't take the overnight train. Ever!'"

Michelle Haley

"All I remember is sleeping on the floor because my bed was broken. Since we were in France, it wasn't so bad."

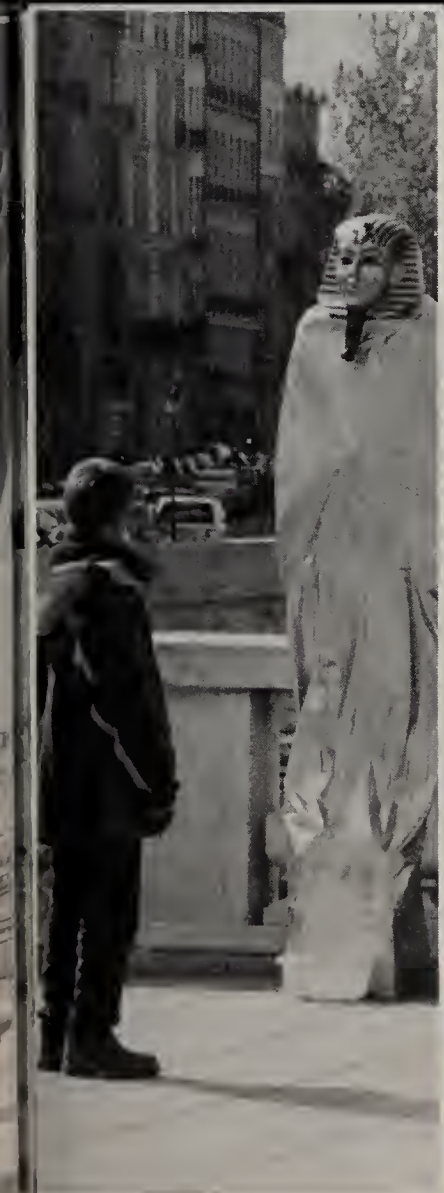

Robyn DiChicco

"The cool cafes, the warm bread, the hot chocolate ... France had the best food I have ever sampled, and boy did I sample!!"

National Honor Society

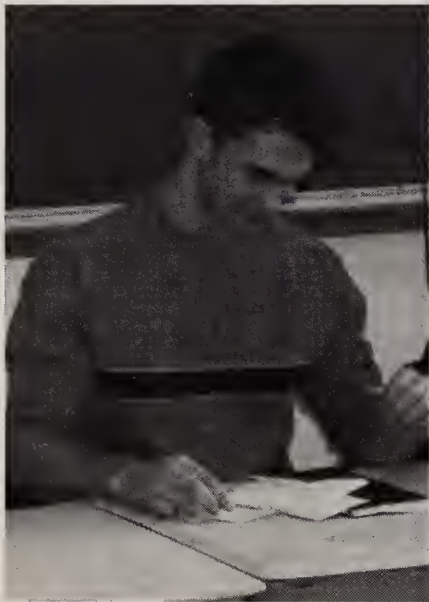

The members of the Pope John National Honor Society must exhibit the qualities of scholarship, character, service, and leadership. The students involved help out in various activities throughout the school year. These activities include conducting school tours at Open House, calling alumni for the annual Phone-a-thon, and running the Easter Basket drive.

Cultural Club

Presidents

Jen O'Callaghan

and

Kristen Sibiga

Vice President Maithy Tran, Secretary Kristin Powers, Treasurer Emily Murphy

The Cultural Club has been a favorite activity among Pope John students for years. It is a wonderful opportunity for students to expand their cultural horizons. Changes abound in the club this year. Mr. McNeil has replaced his wife as moderator and there are two co-presidents as opposed to the traditional one.

New York Trip 2000

After a long, stressful week of midterms, 34 students decided to relax by getting away to Stowe, VT for a weekend full of fun in the snow. As you can see from the photo, the weekend did much to restore their spirits.

Ski Club

Let it snow! Let it snow! Let it snow!

"My favorite part of the weekend was being with my friends and passing notes to the boys under the door."
-Janine Gardino

"I liked skiing, but the lodge at night was my favorite part because there was so much to do."
-Steve Turner

With great concentration and diligence, Pat conquers the bunny slope.

Alanna, Christine, Meghan, and Emily show what went on after hours in the girl's dorms.

Alanna struggles to look cool and carry her skis at the same time.

Jessica and Brynn get ready to hit the slopes.

Derick and Conor take a break to allow the others to catch up.

After a light snack, the gang takes a break before venturing back out onto the slopes.

"Being a first time boarder, the best was when Nicole and Kenny and I took the lift to the top of the mountain."

-Stephanie Favreau

I've fallen, and I can't get up.

Jimmy demonstrates for Caitlin how to lean into a turn.

"I thought it was funny when I saw the people laughing at me while I was snowboarding."

-Anthony Stanford

You always looked so fine
Never give up, never say die
When things got tough
You'd always try and try*

*So proud we are
Of the man you've become
Walk to the beat
Of your own drum
To your own heart be true
And happiness and success
Will always follow you*

As success comes more often than not as a combination of personal efforts and the input and interactions with our surroundings, all of which foster a nurturing environment around us, we must be grateful for the providential opportunities we are presented with throughout our lives.

It is with gratitude that we, his family and friends, recognize the achievements of Robert Viesca, as it is also the recognition and gratitude for the nurturing that everyone has brought about to make those possible.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding.

In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He shall direct your paths.

"To leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; To know even one life has breathed easier Because you have lived. This is to have succeeded."

--Ralph Waldo Emerson

Sister Kristin

Sister Kristin Hokanson, SND came to Pope John in 1989 as vice-principal. Three years later she was asked to be principal. At this year's Catholic Schools Week Mass, Cardinal Law praised Sister Kristin's dedication and financial acumen that brought about the growth and revitalization of our school.

Throughout her years at Pope John, Sister Kristin has instituted many valuable changes. She established an admissions office; encouraged the conversion of the library into the media center; and reestablished the campus ministry program as a full time endeavor. Recognizing the need for technology in education she has continued to invest in the technology center and instituted the Virtual High School program. One of her greatest successes is Pope John's reaccreditation by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

Sister Kristin has helped our school become more active in the community. We are now members of the Everett Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club.

When asked about Sister Kristin, Mrs. Hughes said, "Her primary focus has always been the students and what's best for the students."
